HISTORY

The New Spoons were formed in March 2023 and already in the first half of the year the band was able to perform several concerts.

The first release Find Me Now was followed only two months later by the second single Don't you dare. In addition, the single Let Myself Fall (feat. Krystall) was released on October 13. This was produced as part of the La Gustav Academy, which Di Marco and Caluori graduate this year.

The debut album Clouds was released in March 2024, followed by a release tour through Swiss cities.

INFO

With catchy melodies and irresistible grooves, the New Spoons break out – from everyday life, social norms and occasionally also from the usual instrumental line-up. The Bernese indie rock band really kicks it up a notch, but also touches with quiet songs.

All emotions are given free rein, resulting in arrangements full of dynamism and shows where it doesn't take long for the audience to forget themselves in the music, clapping, dancing and singing along.

They played their first concert just over a year ago. Following the release of their debut album "Clouds" and the release tour in spring, the New Spoons are now on the road again this summer.
